Much interest had been manifested throughout the entire week previously, and large handbills had been posted all over the county, notifying the “sporting public” of the friendly contest that would take place. The match was a subject of much conversation among the friends of the respective clubs during the entire week, and some disputing as to which would be the winners. It was generally conceded, however, that the Rough and Readys would be victorious, as they had more practice and experience. The playing commenced at half past four o’clock precisely, amid a large concourse of people congregated on the grounds of the club, to witness the contest. The excitement and interest manifested on the start by the spectators, continued without abatement throughout the entire game; in fact, even growing more and more intense until the close; and when each club from time to time exhibited a superior skill in some particular branch of playing, cheer upon cheer would be given by the multitude, stimulating the players to greater exertion.”)

18 Jun (Fri)	Rochester, N.Y.	Flour City 25 University 8 (PSOT (2): “The prevailing epidemic in this the ‘Flour’ City, at present, appears to be base-ball. Before this year, such a thing as any kind of out-door game, was scarcely thought of. In the Spring, the Flour City Club was organized, soon after followed the Live Oak and University Clubs, and then the Geneva Valley, Olympic, Hickory, Havelock, Excelsior, Married Mens’, No. 1, Young America, and I might say others too numerous to mention. The first match of the season came off on the 18th inst., between the Flour City and University Clubs. There was considerable feeling evinced about the match, it being the first one, and an immense crowd witnessed the game. The Flour City boys took the ball, making twenty-five runs to their opponents eight. Their playing was remarkably fine, considering the short time they had been in practice, and disappointed the spectators, who anticipated a much closer game. There are several other games on the tapis, and if the lovers of the game continue as they have commenced, we trust that our city will be able to hold its own with the best.”)	(1) “Out-Door Sports: Base-Ball: Base-Ball in Rochester: University vs. Flour City,” PSOT , vol. 4, no. 17 (26 Jun 1858), p. 261, col. 2 (2) V, “Out-Door Sports: Base-Ball: Base-Ball in Rochester,” PSOT , vol. 4, no. 18 (3 Jul 1858), p. 277, col. 3

5 Aug (Thu)	Rochester, N.Y.	Live Oak 24 Flour City 13 (PSOT (1): “The two leading base-ball clubs of our flourishing city contended for the victor’s wreath last Thursday. The day was, as it were, ordered for the occasion, and the attendance was very large, some three thousand ladies and gentlemen being present. ... When the two sides had got their respective positions, I assure you it was one of the most pleasing sights ever beheld. The contrasting uniforms of the two noble clubs was beautiful. The Live Oaks wore white pants, blue stripe; blue shirt, with the L.O. tastefully worked on the left breast; black belt, and a skull-cap, white body, blue ribs, and front-piece blue. The Flour City wore blue pants, white stripe; orange shirt, white belt, blue body to their caps, and front-piece white. It was truly a charming picture. ... Upon the result being announced, the Flour City Club proposed three cheers for the Live Oaks, and in return the victors sent up three good ones for their opponents. The contest ended with the best of feeling, and adjourned for refreshments and wrenches. Though the boys were badly beaten, they have the spirit and strength to make invincibles in this	(1) Claude, “Out-Door Sports: Base-Ball: Base-Ball at Rochester: Live Oak vs. Flour City,” PSOT , vol. 4, no. 24 (14 Aug 1858), p. 381, col. 1 (2) “Out-Door Sports: Base-Ball: Base-Ball at Rochester,” PSOT , vol. 5, no. 5 (2 Oct 1858), p. 68, col. 3

the same idea, were anxious to witness a contest which was likely to be close, as it proved. And the interest was not confined to this city alone. A large delegation from Buffalo came here to witness the trial, and we presume there were spectators from other towns and cities.... The playing is said to have been excellent on both sides, and was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators. A gentleman who was present says: / It was evident that the game was being prolonged beyond any reasonable length of time, and that the Live Oaks were playing in order that they might have the dark innings on their opponents. At the end of seven innings the Umpire left his stool, took out his watch, and proceeded to the scorers' table. Some who were near the Umpire affirm that at the time he took his watch from his pocket, he said: 'Gentlemen, there is not time to play two more innings.' This was after sunset. At the moment the spectators, supposing the game had been called up, rushed upon the grounds, and general confusion followed. It is thought that if the Lone Star Club had taken their places and played the same game that their opponents did—i.e., the prolonged game—they might have continued it till after dark.”) (RU&A (2): “In view of the unfortunate manner in which the recent game of Base Ball terminated between the Live Oaks and Lone Stars, I deem it due to all parties to say that as umpire, I did not suspend the game. Some one, at the close of the 7th innings [ILLEGIBLE] the game was

		closed, whereupon the crowd rushed up. I immediately announced the game waqs not closed, and several times requested the crowd to fall back. They did not do so, and in consequence it became impossible for the game to proceed. I deemed the game taken out of my hands as umpire by the crowd, and that I could do nothing farther except to advise the captains to an amicable arrangement of the difficulty.”) (PSOT: “An attempt was made ... to play the long-deferred match game. ... A considerable number of spectators were present. The playing, as far as it went, was the best ever seen in Rochester. The members of each Club put forth their best exertions, and the greatest caution was observed on both sides. The game proceeded very slowly in consequence, and by the time the 6th innings was played, it became evident that night would set in before the contest could be decided. /There was a good deal of excitement after the play, and some warm language was used with regard to the manner in which the playing closed. Each Club was of course unwilling to admit they were defeated, as the game was so close that two more innings might have made a material difference. Another trial will probably take place.”) best clubs in the West, having been victorious in all the matches they have ever played. / It may seem rather presumptuous to some people, in the Niagaras to challenge a club of the reputation of the Excelsiors, but when they know the motive which induced them to do it, they will view the case differently. / The members of the Excelsior club have for years past, been anxious to make a visit to the Falls of Niagara, and have desired a challenge from the Niagaras as an inducement to make the tour. Now the Niagaras look upon the Excelsiors as their parent club, for it was through the enthusiasm of one of their members, that they were organized, and being anxious to make their acquaintance, and also of giving the citizens an opportunity of seeing a first class club play, they extended the invitation to them for the match. The Niagaras expect to be beaten, and as one of its members remarked, 'its only proper, that the parent should be the first to whip the offspring.' / The Excelsiors ... will arrive in Buffalo on the 10 A. M. train to-day. We believe it is the intention of the Niagara club to make an excursion to the Falls at 2 o'clock, which, besides giving them a ride upon one of the finest rivers in the world, will enable them to see the intrepid Blondin walk, and also take a hurried view of the Falls. Ample accommodations will be made outside the grounds for spectators, on the day of the match, and we expect to see a large assemblage to witness it.") of the country, gave extraordinary interest to the match, and drew out a very large number of spectators—between two and three thousand, at the most moderate computation—including several hundred ladies. Extensive accommodations in the way of seats, raised tier-like, in circus style, upon two sides of the field, had been provided by the Niagaras, and the rang at the rear of the catcher—a position of safety and advantage—was assigned to and filled by the fairer portion of the crowd. / The game was fully equal in interest to the expectations of those attracted by it. It is safe to say that no such ball playing was ever before witnessed in Buffalo. The manner in which the Brooklyn chaps handled the ball—the ease and certainty with which they caught it, under all circumstances, the precision with which they threw it to the bases, and the tremendous hits they gave it into the long field, frequently batting it into Virginia street, made the optics of the Buffalo players glisten with admiration and protrude with amazement. The effect of their playing could not have a favorable effect upon the spirits and energies of the Niagaras, and some of them were, without doubt, a little discouraged. It was remarked by every one that they did not play with their usual skill and coolness. / We have seen them play better. Quite a number of balls even missed or passed the players which should have been caught, or at least stopped, in their victorious career. / Their opponents, however, are as expert at the game as any players in the State, and it is not to be wondered at that they bore away the palm.”)

(BDC (5): “Decidedly the match-game of the season occurred yesterday The Niagaras, hitherto invincible, were beaten, but the result was not unexpected. For their opponents, if our information be correct, are the finest players in the country, and, therefore, in the world. One consolation for the Buffalo Club, is, that, beaten as they were, they were beaten by gentlemen as well as experts. The utmost good feeling prevailed, the Brooklyn Club evidently feeling as much gratification in the individual successes of the Niagara’s men as in their own. Yet another, and still more solid consolation, is derived from the fact, that the Niagara’s played more nearly even with the Excelsior’s than had any other club outside of New York City. / ... / The costume of the Brooklyn club was very simple, consisting of white shirts, dark-blue pantaloons, encircled by white leather belts and black caps. The weather and attendance were equally fine—perhaps we should say fair.”)
